For over 25 years Gordyn & Palmer has had an association with our plants throughout Australia. Their employees are flexible and diligent in their work attitude and solve any outstanding issue that may arise providing 24/7 service.

Their batching and pelleting control systems utilize the latest hardware and software platforms that continually perform to a consistent standard. Genius control systems are reliable and robust. They provide live reporting that complete the information loop back into our general ERP system. We have also used their overall electrical knowledge for safety & category zoning with positive outcomes.

Our company has progressed with a continued steady working relationship with Gordyn & Palmer that remains to this day.
